ONE YEAR IN HEAVEN.
 IN MEMORY OF MRS. GHO. W. TILSON.

What is one year now to you?
 Up there in your heavenly home,
 It is only a moment of bliss and love,
 While to us it is months of earthly gloom.
 Six years your love and life to me were given,
 And now the years are seven;
 Six were mine—and
 One is yours in heaven.

Does ever a memory of your earthly love
 Cross your angel's bosom fair?
 Or has a holier feeling here
 A new life and love up there?
 If ever a thought of your earthly home,
 Reaches your happy sphere,
 Does it seem only a barren waste,
 Compared to your home up there?

When this day dawned—one year ago,
 And the King of Day was slowly rising,
 You closed your lovely eyes and bid adieu
 To earth and all its joys;
 The sunlit rays stole in and played
 About your cold, sweet face,
 It seemed as if an angel had pressed a kiss
 Upon your brow and lent it heavenly grace.

Sometimes it is so hard to bear,
 And life seems hard, dark and dreary,
 But to know you are an angel fair,
 Possessed of bliss and glory,
 Assuages some the grief I feel,
 And makes life less a burden.
 I have lost you, my beloved,
 But heaven has gained a grander.

HEREAFTER

We will run two delivery wagons. The necessity for this has been caused by our largely increasing trade, making it impossible to deliver with one wagon. There have been complaints (and justly, too) by some of our customers at not having goods delivered more promptly. With our additional facilities for delivery we hope to increase our already large trade, and promise to meet all competition. Our stock, as heretofore, will be kept up to the highest standard in quality. All goods sold by us guaranteed to be as represented, both in weights and quality.

PROSPECTUS.
 On or about the 15th of September we will commence the publication of an eight-page thirty-two column weekly paper to be called THE ASHEVILLE TOBACCO JOURNAL. Devoted, as its name implies, to the tobacco interests of the country and of this section in particular. It will contain complete and reliable market reports, crop prospects and conditions, all improvements in methods of cultivation, handling, marketing and manufacturing; and also all items or news that in any way affects this industry. It will from time to time contain articles by experienced men on subjects that cannot fail to interest or instruct farmers, and especially tobacco planters.

The price of the paper will be in the reach of all—One Dollar per annum—and we trust no planter will fail to subscribe. Circulating as it will amongst the best class of buyers, it will be a splendid advertising medium. Merchants, manufacturers and others should note this and act accordingly. Its advertising rates will be reasonable, and quoted on application.
